

Debate: The Silent Intelligentsia – detailed programme

The Silent Intelligentsia? Debate on 9 September 2006

Discussing interactions between culture and politics. The subject will be approached from both historical and cultural heritage perspective as well as new challenges posed to European civilization.

Marcelina Czartoryska Room

10.00 – 10.15 Welcome

Danuta Glondys, Prof. Andrzej Zoll, the Villa Decius Association

10.15 – 10.30 Opening

Prof. Andrzej Zoll

Chair: Arne Ruth

10.30 – 12.30 From Decius to Dedecius

Cultural and historical heritage and possible ways of establishing new relations and intercultural dialogue.

Experts:

Albrecht Lempp, Germany
Mykola Riabczuk, Ukraine
Andrej Chadanovich, Belarus
Zdzisław Mach, Poland

Moderator: Barbara Törnquist-Plewa, Sweden

Room with a Fireplace

12.30 – 13.30 lunch

Marcelina Czartoryska Room

13.30 – 15.30 Culture in-carnations

Multiculturalism and cultural integration are the big mantras of European cultural debates. Are they only the façades or do they carry any deeper meaning?

Experts:

Alain Finkelkraut, France*
László Rajk, Hungary

Debate: The Silent Intelligentsia – detailed programme

Michal Vašečka, Slovakia
Andrzej Jaroszyński, Poland
Łukasz A. Turski, Poland

Moderator: Nina Witoszek-Fitzpatrick, Norway

Ball Room

15.30 – 16.00 coffee break

Marcelina Czartoryska Room

16.00 – 18.00 Politics may be beautiful?

Can politics be moral as Eastern European dissidents once dreamt? Should intellectuals, philosophers and artists become critical mediators on the public forum?

Experts:

Wiktor Osiatyński, Poland
Tadeusz Mazowiecki, Poland
Janusz Majcherek, Poland
Magdaléna Vášáryová, Slovakia
Henryk Wujec, Poland

Moderator: Adam Szostkiewicz, Poland

18.00 – 18.15 Conclusions: Arne Ruth

18.15 – 18.20 Closing remarks: Prof. Andrzej Zoll

 waiting for confirmation*

Debate Consultant: Nina Witoszek-Fitzpatrick

Accompanying events: concert and exhibition

Room with a Fireplace

20.00 – 22.00 Buffet dinner